THERAPY IS HARD ENOUGH. LET ME HANDLE YOUR TAXES

HAND IT OFF TO TRUSTED HANDS—THERAPIST TO THERAPIST.

You didn't go into this field to organize 1099s, decode IRS letters, or figure out if a CE training is deductible.

I'm a licensed therapist who now helps other therapists handle their taxes—no judgment, no overwhelm. I already understand platforms like Alma, Grow, and Headway; EHRs like Simple Practice; and how to track income from insurance panels or private pay.

You don't need to translate clinical reality for me—I've lived it. Just upload what you've got and I'll sort it out.

- ↑ More time for clients
- ↑ More therapist-specific deductions
- ↑ More peace of mind
- ↓ Less paperwork
- ↓ Less tax stress
- ↓ Less risk of errors
